The Latest Twist in Self-help: RoadMap™ to the Rescue!

"The Cliff Notes I wish I had had for my first year as a parent. Very humorous and to the point!" — Silvana, mother of 2 rambunctious boys

The RoadMap™: Baby's First Year

A mother busy with her newborn does not have time to read a 5 lb. book on mothering, or wade through 8,000 google hits on "Why is my baby crying?" Unfolded, The RoadMap™ becomes a colorful two-page cheat sheet that distills the first 12 months of raising a baby down to the most important facts and tips in memorable and humorous bite-sized pieces.

Every square inch is packed with helpful information, charming illustrations and just enough humor to put life in perspective for sleep-deprived parents.

It Makes a Great Gift

Baby's First Year is a fun, informative, thoughtful and unique gift for under $10, and a great addition to a shower gift basket. Moms and Dads can carry it everywhere for a quickie reference or unfold it and hang it on the nursery wall to read and enjoy.

Written by a Real Mom

Jane Terjung, a computer programmer turned stay-at-home mom, has a daughter safely planted in college plus grandchildren she visits with adult supervision. She hopes her nitty-gritty baby guide helps you survive your baby's first year or at least realize it's hopeless.

The RoadMap™: Baby's First Year is available for $8.95 in baby specialty stores and gift shops or by ordering online at: <http://www.ElideBooks.com> or amazon.com.
